

Blessed People in His Name

Blessed are My people who gather in My name, says the Lord. Blessed are My people who gather in My name, for I shall call them by My name. And inasmuch as My name is anointed in all the earth, they who are the called by My name are anointed.

Blessed are the people who are called by My name, says the Lord, for they shall go out before Me a blessed people in all the world. They shall be for Me a people of renown, a holy nation, a royal priesthood. They shall be seen by the world, recognized by the world, honored by the world, persecuted by the world, ridiculed by the world, separated from the world. A peculiar people. Different. Blessed. Honored. Glorified. Raised in victory. Defying the elemental things of the world. Rising above them. Defeating them. Overcoming in the midst of poverty and persecution. Riding on high on great stallions, appointed by Me in this hour to carry them through to victory. Going from faith to faith, from glory to glory.

My people. My image-bearers. My personality in the world: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. My body accomplishing My good work in the world by the Spirit of God who lives in them.

My people, who honor Me in the words of their lips and by the deeds of their hands. For all that they do, they do in obedience to Me.

Can you see it? Can you see them? Can you see this company of overcomers rising as an army on the horizon of time? Can you see their persistence? Can you bear the sight of it? Mighty! Thunderous! Yet, quiet, humble and unassuming. Creeping in one sense so that many will be surprised at their coming and at their great strength. For not everyone has eyes to see, or ears to hear. Coming in stealth, yet coming in volume and power, persistent in their every step.

They cannot falter, they cannot fall, they cannot turn back. Nothing can stop them. Nothing can impede them. They are Mine. Handpicked, called, chosen, and faithful.

This army, this body, this one man is great upon the face of the earth. He is already here. He is already marching. He already knows the drumbeat of My Spirit and is marching to it.

Go forth! I cry as the commander in chief. Go forth! And as I command, they obey. Going to and from as I send them. Scattered, yet greatly unified. Humbled, yet strong in spirit and wisdom and deed. For it is not by power or might that they go forth and do My work, but it is by My Spirit, says the Lord.

Mighty in deed! Mighty in force! Quiet! Gentle! Holy! Righteous! Light! and Life! Going onward in a dark and shadowy world! For wherever their light shines, darkness is revealed. And the darkness is getting darker by the brilliance of their light.

Why do they shine so brightly? Why do they march in such uniformity? Why are they such a threat? I will tell you why. Because they are Mine and those who are Mine love Me. He who loves Me obeys Me. He has only one goal in his mind and heart and soul, that is to obey Me explicitly.

Blessed are My people, who go forth in My name. For they shall have My anointing upon them. If any man goes out under any other name, he must depend upon that name to save him. But there is no other name in heaven, on earth, or beneath the earth that can save, only the name of Jesus—the anointed name of Jesus. For His name is His life. Whoever takes His name becomes His bride. Whoever is His bride gives birth to His sons. Whoever gives birth to His sons are cherished and protected by Him, for He is able to keep.

Blessed are those who gather in My name. For whoever gathers in My name will be sent forth in My name. Coming in and going out! Bearing witness to Me. Glorifying Me. Honoring Me. Proclaiming the good news of Me.

Hear the word of the Lord and obey its commandments. Come in and go forth in the blessed, anointed name of Jesus and you shall be called by His name; and you shall have the anointing and the blessings inherent within His name upon you.

Blessed be the name of the Lord.
