

Call to Holiness

If you could only see yourselves as I see you,
If you could only know yourselves as I know you,
If you could only know what I know about who you are in Me,
You would never sin again.

And that day will come.

As I reveal Myself more and more to My holy ones, you will come to know better all of who I am.

And as you come to know Me for who I am, will you come more to know who you are in Me.

For you are in Me and I am in you,
Just as I am in the heavenlies,
So are you in this lifetime.

I have called you, My people, to walk before Me in holiness and righteousness.

I have called you to lay down your lives in exchange for My life.

I have called you to turn away from your willful way to follow after Me.

Each step I take, you take.

Each path I walk, you walk.

And then at journey's end,

We shall have come to that place
of resurrected glory and peace.

Let Me mellow your hearts.

Let Me purge your hearts.

Let Me restore you to the joy of My salvation.

Let Me be unto you all that I am,

For I am the Great I AM.

I am Jehovah,

King of Kings, Lord of Lords, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.

I am Jesus, the Christ of God.

Do not confuse the issues.

Whoever seeks Me will find Me.

Whoever finds Me will find the Father,

For I and My Father are one.
No man can come to the Father except through Me.
Come unto Me.
Let Me be your holiness.
Let Me be your righteousness.
Let Me be your salvation.
Let Me be your source of power.
I am the Lord your God.
Once again I restore you unto Me.
Allow Me to break your hearts in the particular areas of your sins.
I want to remove them and cleanse your heart.

Let Me break your hearts in the areas of your sin, for until it is I who breaks you, you shall surely again return, as a dog, to your vomit.
Fall on you face before Me, My people, and let Me purge and purify your hearts.

You are My holy ones. I have a great work before you, But I must send you forth as purified vessels of honor. Too many have gone before to do service in My name who were unwilling to wait upon Me to purge them. Now they are becoming a shame to the gospel. I say to you that great judgment is about to fall heavy upon My body, the church.

Many, far too many men have taken far too lightly My call to holiness. What must I say? What must I do? How shall I convince My servants to humble themselves, to empty themselves, and walk the walk I set before them? I am ready to spew them out of My mouth.

But you shall not be so if you mellow your hearts before Me, if you give Me entry into your spirits. I will close the door behind us, and in this secret place I shall purge for Me a mighty people of renown. I shall have for Me My royal priesthood, My holy nation—a people of My own choosing.

You shall begin to see it unfold before your eyes. All that is pretentious and unholy that calls out My name shall be exposed to the light.

And all that has been hidden shall from this day be brought forth. Whatever is the true nature of the man is going to be revealed for good or ill.

Prepare your hearts in fear and trembling. Do not be deceived, My people. I am a holy and righteous God, and I require a holy and righteous people.

I am a God of love, mercy, grace, patience, long-suffering—a God of forgiveness. But I am also a God of wrath, anger, judgment, and punishment. I shall destroy all that is not of Me. Let Me purge you, My people. Let Me take you through the fire of My righteousness. Do not fear this fire. Long for it. For it is your ticket to holiness. It is the only way I shall bring My people in.

Let the word go forth. Do not hold it back. Call My people to holiness, to righteousness, to brokenness.

Call My people to Jesus!
