

Looking for a People

You know what I am looking for. I am looking for a people who will enter into the Holy of Holies with Me, of whom I am. I am that holy place. I am the Holy of Holies. I seek a people who will allow themselves to be sanctified by My precious Holy Spirit, to be cleansed and washed white as snow. For that is how I see you already. I see you finished in Me.

I want to reveal to you that I am holy, totally separated from all that is in the world—the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of life. I am wholly other than these kinds of things. I am looking to raise up a people who have come into that holy place with Me, who have taken on My nature, who have been conformed into My image just as My word says.

Do not hesitate to enter in. There is no satisfactory alternative. You do not want to abide in the world or in the lusts therein, for these things are death and lead to death. Rather abide in Me as I abide in you, and you shall be one with Me as I am one with the Father. Do not think that this is a mystery that cannot be understood. It cannot be understood by the natural mind, but it can be understood in the realm of the spirit as I give you revelation.

I am pouring out My Spirit in a new and fresh way these days, but not in the way you have seen in times past. I am not moving in mass meetings as before, but I am pouring out My Spirit upon those sons and daughters that I have called forth from out of the world whom I have known since before the foundation of the world. These are My true called-out-ones. These are My sons who will be revealed [manifested] in these latter days that the world might come to know Me through them.

Just as I came to reveal the Father so shall I be revealed through My manifested sons. Do not think that this is merely a doctrine of men. It is revealed truth in My word and in My Spirit. Believe it and look anxiously toward it. For those of you who hear this word and rejoice at it are My true called-out-ones. The ones who scoff at it are men of the flesh. They are those who seek kingdoms made with the hands of men.

This is a work that I am doing already in the hearts and lives of individuals everywhere. Some of you will come to know each other by the Spirit. However, for the most part and for now you shall remain rather hidden in Me. For My time is not yet come that I should be revealed in this manner.

Be content. Rest in Me. Have faith in God. For this is the day of your salvation. It is My work that I do in you. You cannot rush the hour or the process, neither can you delay it. Nevertheless, know this for certain, that as you draw nearer to the Holy of Holies, you will find circumstances changing in your life. This is necessary. For the things that used to be important to you no longer will be. The things you use to trust in and put your confidence in, you no longer will. These things must pass. Behold, all things will be made new. Do not fear the changes that are about to come upon you and around you. They look ominous to the outsider, but to you who are abiding in Me, you will know that you are safe and sure in Me, and that they are the way unto your salvation and deliverance. Rest in Me. Have faith in Me, for I am your savior, your redeemer, your sanctifier, and your glorifier.
