

Looking for a People

I am looking for a people who are looking for Me. Yes, indeed! I have appointed for Myself a people who seek Me with all of their hearts, souls, minds, and spirits—a people of renown, a righteous people, a royal priesthood, and a holy nation; a people who are called by My name.

You know who you are. You have a heart for Me. You not only want to know Me, but to do My will in all aspects of your life. It will be because I have appointed a remnant from among all those who name Me as their God. This remnant of sons of My kingdom know Me and I know you. You are called for such a time is this. You are the called, the chosen, and the faithful ones.

It is not within you to play the harlot by running after other gods—all the gods of Self. You have eyes only for Me.

Yes, I may send my Spirit forth in new and greater waves of my presence, but My sons will not seek to surf the waves for the thrill of surfing. They will seek Me in the wave. Do you see the difference? It is difficult at times for even My servants to see the difference between seeking Me and seeking the experience.

Be patient with My Holy Spirit. Impatience is a warning that you are seeking something for Self. Promises delayed often expose an impure heart. If you are looking for Me, you will wait for Me and you will know the difference between what is Me and what is the experience.

If a true wave of my Spirit should come near you and you concern yourself that you missed it, look deeper. You cannot miss what is inside of you. You cannot miss what you are inside—what is already a reality in your being.

Therefore, I say to you, I am looking for people who are looking for Me. They have nothing more than to look within. For I am in you and you are in Me. We are one each with the other just as I in My father are one.

This is My promise I give to you. I will never leave you, nor forsake you. You are Mine and I am yours.

If, therefore, you know within your heart that we are one, then understand also that I am your Husband and you are My bride. You have taken My name. You shall be called by no other name. You are a people of renown. You have My genetics, My DNA (divine nature attributes), My blood stream.

There remains no need for an outward wave of my Spirit for you who are called by My name. I am constantly the gentle flowing water of righteousness within you.

Know this about yourselves and enter into My Sabbath rest. Come forth sons of the living God! Come forth!

January 1, 2014