

New Wine People

My son, a time is coming and now is when the true sons of God are coming forth to manifest My glory, My power, My presence, My peace, My righteousness.

They are going to be true servants of Jesus who will dip their cups into the water of the word and, through radical obedience to My Holy Spirit, will see that water turn to wine.

There really is a people of My choosing who are coming forth in this hour, who will drink the cup of suffering that I drank. They will be willing to the end to pour out their lives as a drink offering unto Me. Listen to the prophets. They speak of Me. Listen to the law. It speaks of Me. They all point to Me. The traditions of men point to themselves and to the men who invent them. They do not speak of Me.

Therefore, the traditions of men are idolatrous inventions of the carnal mind. They are bondage, holding souls in captivity, and the wonder of it all is this: My people love it so. Not so with those who truly hunger after Me. Not so with those who are willing to eat My flesh and drink My blood. For those who eat My flesh and drink My blood participate in My life and, thereby, become as I am—the Word made flesh. As I promised in My word, if you are truly My disciples, you will take up your cross daily and follow Me. You will die to all that is not of Me and of My Spirit.

“There is coming forth a people, a people of renown, who will wear a garment of holiness, not of outward apparel, but of an inward heart of circumcision; a people who will present themselves a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto Me, for this is their reasonable service.” Romans 12:1. They will be new wine, the wine of My word poured out upon the ground of sacrifice and radical obedience.

I have been calling forth this people for some time. Many have resisted this word because they have not understood. Many have resisted because of the idolatry of the old wineskins in their hearts. As I pour forth My revelation, as they experience the futility of old wineskins, they will repent and turn with a whole and pure heart toward Me, the living and true God.

I have appointed this people. I have appointed this hour. Nothing in heaven or hell could hold back this wave of the Holy Spirit that is going to bring forth this people. They are a remnant, My promised remnant, but they will be a mighty people. They are a people with a purpose. They will indeed manifest My power, My presence, My peace, My glory, My joy, My righteousness in this final hour.

Hear the word of the Lord for the call comes forth as certain as never before. Abandon the old wineskins of Babylon, return to Zion. Arise My people, arise. Come forth! Come up! Come out! Rejoice, My people, rejoice for the hour of the Lord has come. Awake, My people, awake, for the day of the Lord is upon you.
